A Note About Our Prayerbooks

Welcome to the South Street Temple. Our prayerbooks, Mishkan T'Filah, are in the lobby or on the bookshelf at the front of the sanctuary. We invite you to take one so that you may join in our worship. As these are sacred books, we ask that you handle them with care by keeping them off the floor and returning them to their proper place at the conclusion of the service. Each prayer in Mishkan T'Filah is laid out in a two-page spread, the Hebrew text, transliteration, and English translation on the right, and on the left are two alternate English readings reflecting on the theme of the prayer. The rabbi or cantorial soloist will announce page numbers and which option will be read. Shabbat Shalom. We are glad you are here.

THE STRENGTH OF A PEOPLE / THE POWER OF COMMUNITY

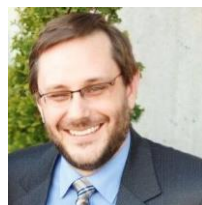

Scholars-in-Residence

Zachary B. Smith, Ph.D.

Margaret Gurewitz Smith, M.A.

On select Saturdays in the coming months we will have a series of educational presentations exploring topics including the relationship between religion and politics in America, American religious fundamentalisms, and the Christian roots of anti-Semitism.

The series will begin on Saturday, November 10 at 10:45 in place of Torah Study, and will continue on December 1 and January 12. A date for February will be announced. All are invited and encouraged to attend!

Global Day of Jewish Learning

NOV.11.18

A project of the Aleph Society

Join us on Sunday, November 11: 9:45-11:45 am at South Street Temple; in partnership with Congregation Tifereth Israel. Doors open at 9:30 am.

The Global Day of Jewish Learning is a day of world-wide encounters with Jewish ideas and sacred texts. It reaches every corner of the Jewish world and brings Jews of all beliefs and backgrounds together in a day of study and unity.

This year's theme is:

Extraordinary Passages: Texts and Travels
