A Note About Our Prayerbooks

Welcome to the South Street Temple. Our prayerbooks, Mishkan T'Filah, are in the lobby or on the bookshelf at the front of the sanctuary. We invite you to take one so that you may join in our worship. As these are sacred books, we ask that you handle them with care by keeping them off the floor and returning them to their proper place at the conclusion of the service. Each prayer in Mishkan T'Filah is laid out in a two-page spread, the Hebrew text, transliteration, and English translation on the right, and on the left are two alternate English readings reflecting on the theme of the prayer. The rabbi or cantorial soloist will announce page numbers and which option will be read. Shabbat Shalom. We are glad you are here.

We need to do some weeding and cleanup of the garden beds prior to the High Holy days. We hope that many of you can join us at 2:00 pm on August 12 to start our cleanup.

In addition, the city has informed SST that we are required to trim back the yews that are encroaching onto the sidewalk. We have hired someone to do this trimming, beginning around 3:00 pm on the 12th. In order to save costs and time, we will help bag up the branches/leaves while the hedge is being trimmed. We will need bags and rope/string for gathering of limbs from the trimming of the hedge.

Please let Ellin Siegel know if you can help: ellin7@aol.com
