A Note About Our Prayerbooks

Welcome to the South Street Temple. Our prayerbooks, Mishkan T'Filah, are in the lobby or on the bookshelf at the front of the sanctuary. We invite you to take one so that you may join in our worship. As these are sacred books, we ask that you handle them with care by keeping them off the floor and returning them to their proper place at the conclusion of the service. Each prayer in Mishkan T'Filah is laid out in a two-page spread, the Hebrew text, transliteration, and English translation on the right, and on the left are two alternate English readings reflecting on the theme of the prayer. The rabbi or cantorial soloist will announce page numbers and which option will be read. Shabbat Shalom. We are glad you are here.

LJCS News

Today from the Lincoln Jewish Community School:
We want to say thank you to the Grossbart - Henkelmann family for their generous donation.

Sunday School classes will resume at their usual buildings and times on Sunday, September 16th. Please note, there will be no school Wednesday September 19th.

KEVER AVOT MEMORIAL SERVICE

The words kever avot literally mean the “graves of our fathers.” It is traditional to visit the graves of our loved ones between Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur: in the hope that our loved ones will intercede on our behalf with G-d during this time of judgment; and to allow us to honor those who so deeply affected our lives.

Rabbi Appleby will be conducting a Kever Avot service at Wyuka Cemetery on Sunday, September 16 at 3:00 pm.
