A Note About Our Prayerbooks

Welcome to the South Street Temple. Our prayerbooks, Mishkan T'filah, are in the lobby or on the bookshelf at the front of the sanctuary. We invite you to take one so that you may join in our worship. As these are sacred books, we ask that you handle them with care by keeping them off the floor and returning them to their proper place at the conclusion of the service. Each prayer in Mishkan T'filah is laid out in a two-page spread, the Hebrew text, transliteration, and English translation on the right, and on the left are two alternate English readings reflecting on the theme of the prayer. The rabbi or cantorial soloist will announce page numbers and which option will be read. Shabbat Shalom. We are glad you are here.

On Tuesday, February 12 - Abraham Lincoln's birthday - the Lincoln Community Foundation will host the first ever Lincoln Littles Giving Day in support of Prosper Lincoln. It's one special day when people like you, who care about kids in our city, join forces to help more children in need receive a quality early childhood education.

We know that there are more than 750 pre-kindergarten children without access to quality early childhood education. High-quality child care helps children develop the range of skills necessary for success in school and beyond. This is critical to Lincoln's future.

Give to Lincoln Littles by February 12... and help a lot!

Learn more at www.LincolnLittles.org

We are delighted that Marcia Kushner will be joined by family members and friends as she celebrates her 90th birthday at Tifereth Israel on Shabbat morning, March 2nd. Services will start at 10:00 am and will include a special tribute to Marcia on behalf of the congregation. Afterward, there will be a celebratory kiddush lunch followed by scholar in residence Rabbi Elliott Tepperman, Marcia's nephew. Rabbi Tepperman will present "Truth Grows From The Earth: A Text Study About Finding Our Truth as Individuals and as a Community", beginning at 12:30 pm.

You will definitely want to come celebrate with Marcia and wish her well as she enters this special time of life.
