A Note About Our Prayerbooks

Welcome to the South Street Temple. Our prayerbooks, Mishkan T'filah, are in the lobby or on the bookshelf at the front of the sanctuary. We invite you to take one so that you may join in our worship. As these are sacred books, we ask that you handle them with care by keeping them off the floor and returning them to their proper place at the conclusion of the service. Each prayer in Mishkan T'filah is laid out in a two-page spread, the Hebrew text, transliteration, and English translation on the right, and on the left are two alternate English readings reflecting on the theme of the prayer. The rabbi or cantorial soloist will announce page numbers and which option will be read. Shabbat Shalom. We are glad you are here.

Homestead Days 2019

The Star City Kochavim will be performing during Homestead Days at the Homestead National Monument in Beatrice, NE. Your favorite band takes the stage on Sunday, June 23 at 2:00 pm.

Our next Temple Gardening Get-together will take place on Sunday, June 30 from 8:30-10:00 am

Barb Straus has kindly agreed to lead the group.

So, please reply back to the whole group or directly to Barb (barbstraus@gmail.com) so that she will know who can join her.

The primary tasks are to weed and trim. So bring hand trimmers, weeding tools, leaf/lawn bags, rakes, broom, etc.

Next date will be July 14, from 8:30 -10 AM.

Movie Screening

Join us for a special movie screening of Paris to Pittsburgh

Tuesday, July 9 at 7:00 pm in the Temple Social Hall

We are excited to be hosting a FREE screening of Paris to Pittsburgh, inspiring stories of the local, private sector, and community leaders across the U.S. who are continuing to take action to transition to a clean energy economy - regardless of federal inaction.

This is a must-see for people of faith concerned about the future of U.S. climate action.

Free screening from Interfaith Power and Light, in partnership with Bloomberg and Radical Media. Co-hosted by Nebraska Interfaith Power and Light.
