

April at the South Street Temple

TEMPLE NEWS: CORONAVIRUS UPDATE

The South Street Temple continues to monitor the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) situation in Lincoln and across Nebraska. We are relying upon state, national and international medical experts for direction, and are making every effort to stay up-to-date and adjust our policies and procedures.

Contacting the Temple:

- Temple Office: The office will be open during regular office hours - 1:00-5:00 pm, Monday - Friday - as usual. Feel free to call 402-435-8004; you can also email office@southstreettemple.org at any time.
- Rabbi Appleby: Email rabbi@southstreettemple.org or call her at 423-763-8007.

Services, classes, and events: At this time, we feel that the best way to continue with our usual Temple activities, while minimizing the risk of exposure, is to offer our members and friends some updated alternatives to gathering in person:

- Friday evening and Saturday morning services will be offered by live stream only. Service times will be as usual: Fridays at 6:30 pm and Saturdays at 9:30 am. Access the our webstream at <https://southstreettemple.org/worship/streaming/>
- Torah Study will also continue, but will be offered as a weekly Zoom session, facilitated by Rabbi Appleby. Please contact the Temple office as soon as possible if you would like to receive an invitation and link to the Zoom session. Links to upcoming Torah portions on Sefaria.org can be found in the "This Shabbat" and "Next Shabbat" sections of the weekly email newsletter.
- Our regular Introduction to Judaism and Adult Hebrew classes will also be offered remotely via Zoom until further notice. Rabbi Appleby will share details and materials with those registered for the classes prior to each session.
- If you'd like to borrow a copy of our siddur, Mishkan T'filah, to follow along from home when watching our webstream, you may do so by arranging a visit to the Temple office. However, if you would prefer not to handle one of our communal prayerbooks, you can access an online copy of Mishkan T'filah here. You can also purchase a copy for Kindle here. Rabbi Appleby has also developed a special South Street Temple service booklet incorporating the most frequently used portions of our prayerbook. Copies are available to all who want them.

- The CDC is urging organizations to cancel or postpone gatherings of 50 or more people. As of March 25, the City of Lincoln is enforcing this limit. Accordingly, we will NOT host our annual Second Night Seder at the Temple this year. Links to Passover resources and activities will be shared, and suggestions for such resources are welcomed!

POP-UP SHABBAT DINNERS

When? Our next Pop-up Shabbat will be on April 10, 2020, and at least one additional host is needed!

What? Pot-luck Shabbat dinners hosted in congregant's homes. Informal...friendly...relaxed get-togethers. A little ritual (blessings over candles, wine and challah) and plenty of socializing. Hosts only need to open the door with a smile and provide a set table. Guests may bring an assigned dish to share.

Why? To break bread together, to have unexpected conversations, to experience the joy of Shabbat, to enjoy each other's company, and to meet someone new or to get to know each other in much deeper ways.

Options for Friday, April 10

- The home of Rabbi Appleby and Jon Leo, who will be hosting during the week of Passover and sharing how to work with this holiday's special dietary requirements. This will be a virtual Shabbat dinner! We haven't decided on the actual format yet, so watch for details.
- Reminder: NO Erev Shabbat Services at the Temple

ONEG HOSTING

We are suspending Oneg Shabbat until further notice. Information on hosting opportunities will be posted when we resume.

Passover in the Midst of COVID-19

Under normal circumstances, we would be shopping for and planning our Passover seders, when we would be gathering around the tables of our families, friends, and community to retell one of the central stories of the Jewish people: our liberation from slavery in Egypt. Under normal circumstances...

Under normal circumstances, I might write my April Passover column about the meanings of chametz and matzah; about why I put an orange on my seder plate; or a call to fight for social justice.

Under normal circumstances, I might speak about how Passover is an opportunity for what I call in-reach and outreach. In-reach: that Passover is a good time to reflect on our Jewish identities; and, as we rid our homes of chametz and eat matzah for a week, a good time to reduce the arrogance, haughtiness, and pride in our lives (symbolized by the chametz), and to increase our humility (symbolized by the matzah). Outreach: to others, in the sense of both inclusiveness towards those who feel marginalized in the Jewish community (symbolized by the orange on the seder plate); and responsiveness to the hunger, homelessness, and oppression that plague the world today.

Under normal circumstances, I would be urging you to share the hope of Passover by supporting organizations such as MAZON: A Jewish Response to Hunger, the American Jewish World Service (AJWS), or Community Crops (a local organization that provides education, advocacy, and experiences that enable people to grow and enjoy healthy and local food).

Under normal circumstances, I would be reminding you to make ethical consumer choices, which are especially poignant (and sweet) during our celebration of liberation, by buying Fair Trade chocolate from Equal Exchange. Seven flavors* have been deemed Kosher for Passover by the Conservative Movement, without needing a

Kosher L'Pesach certification -- just buy them before removing your chametz for Passover.

But circumstances this year are not normal... they are very different...and very difficult. The mounting physical, emotional, spiritual, and financial impacts of COVID-19 will continue and will be immense.

We're still trying to figure out how best to maintain a caring and connected community in a time of physical isolation and sheltering-in-place. Right now, were trying to figure out how to have meaningful and joyful virtual seders. We are ready to respond to some of your immediate needs:

- If you would like someone to buy and deliver Matzah (and other Passover foods) for you...please let us know.
- If you would like someone to deliver a Passover meal to you...please let us know.
- If you're going to be home alone and would like to join a seder virtually...please let us know.

Right now, and for the immediate future, we are in a novel, narrow place—a new and unknown and threatening Mitzrayim. Each of us is a point on a broad continuum of vulnerability—some much more and some less vulnerable than others. We need to take care of ourselves first, but we must also reach out and take care of one another.

Please share your ideas, talents, and time with us to figure out how we can help strengthen, repair, and heal our community and world from the damage caused by the Covid-19 pandemic. Help us to help others share the hope of freedom that is the promise of Passover.

Chag Sameach, Rabbi Appleby

2020 INTERFAITH PRAYER BREAKFAST

"Virtual" Mayor's Interfaith Prayer Breakfast
Now a FREE Live Web Event April 17
Friday, April 17, 2020, 7:30 am

Honorary Chair: Mayor Leirion Gaylor Baird
Featured Speaker: Nipun Mehta, Founder of ServiceSpace

and named one of the most inspiring people in the world

The Annual Mayor's Interfaith Prayer Breakfast has been transformed due to the coronavirus pandemic. Instead of a sit-down breakfast event, we will bring you a free live web event so we can still hear Nipun Mehta's powerful, inspirational message of compassion.

In these unique times where our interconnectedness is abundantly clear, coming together to build a more compassionate community feels more pressing than ever. Let's make compassion and community the enduring "viral" contagions of these times!

The featured speaker, Nipun Mehta, founded ServiceSpace, an organization and global ecosystem fully run by volunteers that leverages both the "inner technology" of our many ancient wisdom traditions and the "outer technology" of our modern scientific understandings (inner-net meets internet).

Nipun has catalyzed a global social movement of community builders grounded in their localities and rooted in practices for cultivating love, nonviolence, selfless service, and compassion. The ecosystem has reached millions, attracted thousands of volunteers, and mushroomed into numerous community-based service projects as well as inspiring content portals -- projects such as DailyGood, Awakin circles in more than 100 circles around the globe, weekly Awakin calls and Awakin weekly readings, KindSpring, and Karma Kitchen.

Following tradition, the program will feature sacred readings and prayers from the wide variety of the religious communities that call Lincoln home. Music will be provided "virtually" by Great Plains Chamber Winds.

JEWISH BOOK CLUB

Thanks to Sadie Wilson for organizing the Zoom meeting of our Book Club on March 22. In "attendance" were: Sadie Wilson, Deb Swearingen, Zoya Zeman, Gloria Jacoby, Suzanne Plass, Elaine Monnier and Dennis Dohner. We discussed The Tattooist of Auschwitz.

If anyone was unsuccessful getting into the Book Club's Zoom meeting, please let either Sadie or Dennis (emails and phone numbers below) know and we will try to figure out how to include you next time. This is important since it appears that we may be Zooming for a while.

The group decided to hold another meeting April 19, 2020 at 1:30 pm. This meeting will also be via Zoom unless coronavirus makes an unexpectedly quick exit. The book for this meeting will be My Promised Land: The Triumph and Tragedy of Israel by Ari Shavit who was - at the time the book was published - a columnist at the "left-leaning" Haaretz daily in Israel. He grew up in Israel, so he knows, better than most of us, what he is talking about. Dennis recalls, from a previous reading of the book, Shavit does an excellent job of telling all sides of the many stories (good, bad and neutral) of the history of the State of Israel.

The Book Club will also meet May 17, 2020 (by Zoom) and discuss a book suggested by Sadie Wilson entitled All Who Go Do Not Return: A Memoir by Shulem Deen. This is the story of a Hassid who is no longer Hasidic. Sadie found it on one of the many "Books you must read before you die" lists.

Deb Swearingen mentioned a new Netflix series entitled "Unorthodox: The Scandalous Rejection of My Hasidic Roots" as of possible interest to Book Club members (although it is not a book!). Another recommendation is a book entitled Educated by Tara Westover. This is the story of how Westover managed to get into the modern, real world after growing up home-schooled in a survivalist cult. This is not an overtly Jewish-themed book, but it did make it onto the Penguin/Random House list of "22 books you should read before you die."

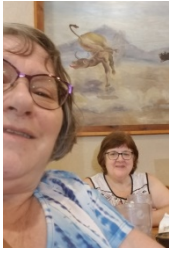

Happy reading all... "See" you at the next Book Club!

JEWISH WOMEN'S LUNCH

There were 3 of us at Mi Tierra on Tuesday, March 17th.

Since we don't know what the situation will be next month, including whether restaurants will be open, we will meet on April 21st at 12:00 pm at Barb Barron's home, 1145

Mockingbird Lane.

We will bring our own take out or food from home. There are many drive-through restaurants nearby including Sultan's Kite, Panera Bread, Jimmy Johns, etc. We hope to see you then. Take care of yourselves!

Let Deborah Swearingen (402-476-7528) know if you plan to attend and if you need a ride.

CLINIC WITH A HEART

Since 2012, the South Street Temple has been a sponsoring congregation for Clinic with a Heart, a free urgent care clinic that serves people without health insurance. Along with our partner congregation, St. Paul United Methodist Church, our Temple team provides volunteer services to patients of all ages and backgrounds in an atmosphere of kindness and respect.

Our members and friends have served as physicians, nurses, lab technicians, office volunteers, and support staff. We also contribute personal care items and over the counter medications. To sustain this project takes the work of our volunteers and our financial commitment. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Barb Straus at barbstraus@gmail.com.

Clinic with a Heart relies on funding from its sponsoring organizations to pay for supplies and medications. Our annual obligation of $1,800, funded through your donations, has been met – and exceeded – for another year! Todah rabah to all who contributed.

FEEDING THE KIDS AT F STREET

Our Lincoln Jewish community helps to plan meals, find volunteers, and serve a meal to the youth at F Street once a month. This is a great opportunity to ensure children are not going hungry in our community. Our Jewish youth and volunteers really enjoy interacting with the children at F Street.

If you would like to donate funds to this program and help continue this mitzvah, please contact Elaine Monnier at treasurer@southstreettemple.org or call Peter Mullin at 402-435-8004.

We are collecting non-perishable food items that can be packaged and sent home to our kids and families while the center is under pandemic-required gathering restrictions
