staff will continue to monitor conditions and will formulate plans for August at our next meeting on July 26.

The murders of George Floyd, Breonna Taylor, Ahmaud Arbery, Tony McDade, and so many others are the tragic and unsurprising results of a racist and broken system — the same system that fueled Charlottesville, Charleston, and a litany of other white supremacist attacks. Integrity First for America, in partnership with a world-class legal team, is uniquely taking on the neo- Nazis, white supremacists, and hate groups at the center of this violent movement, holding them accountable in federal court for the violence they brought to Charlottesville in 2017.

IFA's lawsuit — scheduled to go to trial this fall— details how these extremists conspired to orchestrate a weekend of violence, which resulted in Heather Heyer's death and extensive injuries. It provides a tangible way to take action against extremism that's poisoning this country and has the potential to bankrupt and dismantle the leaders and hate groups at the center of this movement — which is key, given their disturbing Renewal). We are in the process of trying to post with the Reconstructionist movement as well. We're casting a very wide net in order to find the best possible candidate.

Our committee is co-chaired by Anne Rickover and Ken Bloom, and includes Nicholette Siegfried, Dan Senft, Alan Frank, Yoel Swartz, Seth Harris, Dan Friedman, and Mike Eppel. Our work together has truly been an example of the "Two Congregations, One Community" spirit we are working toward.

You can always ask us if you have further questions. We'll keep you updated.

- arickover@gmail.com
- kenbloom@unl.edu

FINANCIAL SUSTAINABILITY UPDATE

A South Street Temple Budget Committee has been formed, including Art Zygielbaum, John Mosow, Dan Senft, Leslie Delserone, Nicholette Seigfried, and Elaine Monnier. The committee met on June 29 to create projected budgets for the next 5 years. Art Zygielbaum, Howard Feldman, and Elaine Monnier have